Badge holder's Statement

I, the undersigned, grant permission for a background screening check to be performed for the purposes of allocating an airport identification badge. This permission also applies to any subsequent screening aimed at checking to establish whether the conditions required to be allowed to keep an airport identification badge are or are still to be satisfied. This permission can be withdrawn at any point in time by the person in question who no longer wishes to be subjected to security screening or to be holder of an airport identification badge. I also solemnly declare that the information stated in this document is correct and comprehensive and I undertake to spontaneously report any change or other security related information if the competent services were to request this.

Badges must always be worn in a clearly visible place when one is in the restricted area and on airside. The person wearing a badge releases the Antwerp Airport NV from any responsibility during his or her stay in its institutions. He or she moves in the restricted areas and on airside at his or her own risk and is there only for the purposes of performing his or her job. The badge holder declares to have attended mandatory training which confirms having unaccompanied access to the CPSRA and security awareness.

Permission by the person applying for the badge (Law of 11 December 1998 on classification and the security clearances)

In accordance with the applicable provisions of the European and National aviation security regulations, only persons who were subjected to a pre-employment background check can be employed in the secured areas of airport sites for international air traffic. This check dates go back to a period of a minimum of five years, to be calculated from the day on which the application is made. The check must be repeated every five years. The person in question must agree to have this check done and take due note of the decision by the Director-General in DGLV dated 23 June 2009.

The personal data will be archived for safety purposes by the authorities indicated by the commission for the Protection of Privacy and managed by Antwerp Airport. The persons in question are allowed to always consult their personal data in order to acquaintance and improve (Law: 08/12/1992). The person who is not willing to be a subject of security verification is able to refuse by checking the box below (art. 30/03/2000) and by resending a registered letter to the FOD Mobility and Transport – Belgian Airport Authority. A safety certificate or a safety advice is required for access, admission, permit, entitlement or nomination, and will not be granted for those who explicitly refuse to be a subject of a verification. Clarity can be encountered by the mail addresses below.

- I refuse to be the subject of a security verification.
- I give my permission to be the subject of a security verification.

De badge holder acquires to add a copy of the front and back of their ID-card to the application.
