Daily flight to Malaga from Antwerp Airport starting Saturday April 4th

For the 2020 summer season TUI Fly will premiere its first daily flight to popular destination Malaga. The added departure days, Monday and Friday, are ideal opportunities to get away for a long weekend.

The success of Malaga Airport (and vacation region Costa del Sol) has systematically increased since the start of TUI Fly flights out of Antwerp Airport. There were two scheduled flights per week in 2015. A mere 5 years later, the summer of 2020 will see that number rise to seven per week. It is a first for the Antwerp Airport to have a daily connection. The addition of Mondays and Fridays as departure days has proven to be successful before, serving as a quick escape after a hard week's work. During winter season, those same days are available to fly from Antwerp to Innsbruck, Austria. A popular route among many skiing enthusiasts. TUI Fly believes a long weekend under the sun will be a hit formula among travelers.

Antwerp Airport's destinations for the summer 2020 will be as follows:

Croatia

Split

Morocco

Nador

Tangier

Spain

Alicante

Ibiza

Malaga

Mallorca

Murcia

Tunisia
